

CHINATOWN

Crown Bakery

4355 Spring Mtn. Road, Suite 207
(702) 873-9805

A civilized spot for some sweets or tea, right next door to Ichiza.

Dong Ting Spring (Hunan)

3950 Schiff Drive
(702) 387-7888

Salty, peppery, western Chinese cooking that will set your mouth aflame.

Greenland Supermarket Food Court (Korean)

6850 Spring Mtn. Road
(702) 459-7878

Always crowded with Korean families.

Honey Pig (Korean)

4725 Spring Mtn. Road
(702) 876-0711

Panchan cooking is perfect for big parties.

J&J Szechuan

5700 Spring Mtn. Road, Suite A
(702) 876-5983

Get the crispy intestines and bring a firehose.

Korean Garden BBQ

4355 Spring Mtn. Road, Suite 201
(702) 383-3392

Along with Mother's, the best ban chan and table barbecue along Spring Mountain Road.

Mother's Korean Grill

4215 Spring Mtn. Road, Suite 107
(702) 579-4745

John says his Food Gal loves the bi bim bap here.

Noodle Café and Chinese Barbeque (Cantonese)

4355 Spring Mtn. Road, Suite 104
(702) 220-3399

You just can't get more authentic than this little dive, where you can chow down on Cantonese crispy noodles, house-made barbequed pork, and real won ton.

Raku

(see page 84)

This place is simply in a class by itself among Japanese restaurants in Vegas. Mitsuo Endo could make a tree taste good.

SEA URCHIN WITH NOODLES FROM RAKU