Introduction

If you're looking for information on the best strip clubs in Las Vegas, you just hit the jackpot, Jack. You've found the ultimate Las Vegas guide to girls peeling off their underthings in public. Sin City has 20 strip joints where the girls dance topless and 8 clubs where they dance completely nude. We've got stage strip shows, table dances, lap dances, couch dances, nude bed dances, oil wrestling, shower shows, bikini contests, lingerie contests, amateur nights, big booty shows, stripper twister games, stripper dinner dates, and a modern version of stripper taxi dancing. Hell, there's even a club with stripper karaoke!

As a traveling man, I've been to strip clubs in just about every state in the U.S.—including Alaska and Hawaii—and a lot of other countries as well, and I've never seen another town like this one. The best strip clubs in Las Vegas are some of the best in the world! And Jack, I cover it all. I'm a man who's found his calling. I spend my every waking moment looking at naked girls, so that when you get into town, no matter what you're looking for, I can steer you in the right direction. I give you 100% honest reviews of exactly what you can expect. If I like a place, I tell you why. If I don't like a place, I give it to you straight. I list the prices for everything and whether or not I think they're worth it. I also fill you in on how to avoid getting ripped off and provide tricks the locals use to have maximum fun at minimum cost.

In the back of this book are appendices containing two key Las Vegas strip-club concepts: the situation with taking taxi cabs to the clubs, and the reality of the legality of what goes on inside.

Although the reviews are based on my own ongoing experience and research, strip clubs do occasionally change ownership, as well as policies and prices. This printed pocket guide can't be updated as frequently as the e-book, so if you want the complete up-to-the-minute situation with the clubs, along with a much more extensive introduction, coverage of the sexiest Las Vegas shows and casino swimming pools, and photos of some of the gorgeous dancers, you can go to www.SinCityAdvisor.com to buy the Topless Vegas e-book. If you find any errors or omissions, or you have any comments, criticisms, or arguments with any of what's included in this book, please contact me so that I can correct it. And we're working on SinCityAdvisor.com, where we'll post more of my ramblings as I meander through erotic

Vegas, so check there from time to time to see the latest. You can also email me directly at: arnoldsnyder@live.com.

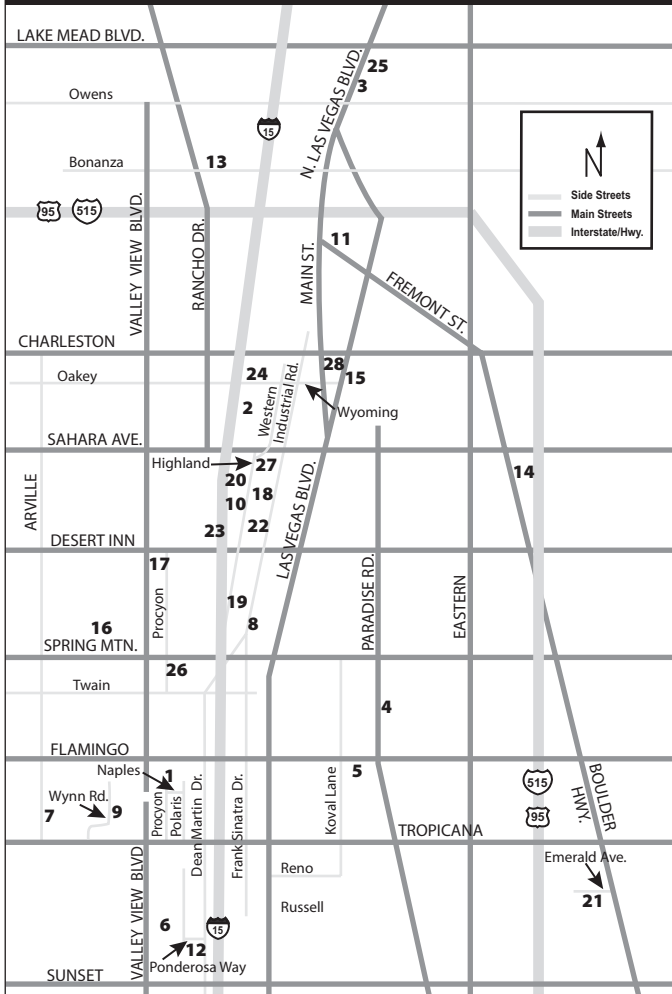

The Differences Between Topless and Nude

There are eight major differences between the nude clubs and the topless clubs:

CLUB DIFFERENCES	TOPLESS	NUDE
1. Alcohol served	yes	no
2. Age of dancers	older (min. age 21)	younger (min. age 18)
3. Tits	big (lots of silicone)	little (mostly natural)
4. Pussy	no	yes
5. Stage show	dark, mediocre	well-lit, excellent
6. Physical contact	high-mileage	lower-mileage
7. Locals cover charge	locals free	locals pay
8. Age of customers	all 21 or older	lots of guys 18-20

There are exceptions to some of these differences in various clubs, and I discuss these exceptions in my reviews.

Choosing A Strip Club Based On Your Budget

What if you have only $20 to spend on strip-club entertainment and you'd like a nice relaxing night of watching women take their clothes off? What if you have $50? $250? Which clubs are your best bets for value, visuals, and action?

The answers depend on several factors, including whether or not you're a Nevada resident, how you arrive at the clubs, and if you pay a cover charge (for non-locals). Remember, if you're from out of town and you arrive in a cab, most clubs will hit you up for a hefty admission fee. So, let's get that issue out of the way first.

Cover Charges and Beer Prices

Clubs with no cover charge for locals or out-of-towners at any time: Chicas Bonitas, Club Platinum, Foxy Girls, and Larry's Villa.

Clubs with relatively cheap cover charges for all: Library $5, Play It Again Sam $10, and Palomino Club no cover Sunday–Thursday.

Clubs with no cover charge for locals and/or those who don't arrive by cab: Badda Bing, Cheetahs, Club Paradise, Crazy Horse III, Hustler Erotic Ultra Club, Olympic Garden (OG), Play It Again Sam, Rick's Cabaret, Sapphire, Spearmint Rhino, and Treasures.

Of these, my personal recommendations for out-of-towners on a tight budget start with the Palomino Club. If it's not a Friday or Saturday night, this one's a no-brainer: admission is free and a domestic beer is $6.50.

On weekend nights, I'd pay the $5 to get into the Hustler Erotic Ultra Club, where a beer will cost you $3. I like the Hustler Club much more than any of the free topless clubs for non-locals.

If you're a local, however, look at all the topless joints you can get into for free. If you stick with the major clubs where a beer costs less than $7, your choices, with one beer, include: Cheetahs $6.50, Club Paradise $5, Déjà Vu Erotic Ultra Lounge $5,

Topless Vegas Pocket Guide

Hustler Erotic Ultra Club $3, Play It Again Sam $5.50, and Rick's Cabaret $5.

My personal favorite among this group: Déjà Vu Erotic Ultra Lounge.

With More Money for Lap Dances

Now, say you've got a half-hour to kill and you'd like to go to a strip club, get a drink and a lap dance, then split. What will it cost you? Again, that depends on whether or not you're a Nevada resident (or, in some cases, you simply don't arrive in a cab). The chart on pg. 12 shows the cost of admission, drink, and lap dance for out-of-staters and locals. I've starred my personal favorites, but you should read the complete reviews of each club to see why they're my favorites; your criteria may differ from mine.

Also note: All costs in the charts are rounded to the nearest dollar, based on the best information I have, and assume that you're not drinking during happy hour, or on special reduced admission days, or when there are special discounts on lap dances, etc. Read the full reviews for tips on special prices that many clubs offer.

Note how much less locals pay than out-of-staters. Most of the cost difference is due to the free (or reduced) admission policy for locals at most clubs, though in some cases locals get reduced rates for drinks and even lap dances. If you have budget concerns when it comes to your entertainment expenses, use these charts as a general guide to choosing a club. But always read the full reviews of the clubs you're considering. Paying a few extra bucks to go to a club that suits your personal tastes, as opposed to just picking the cheapest joint available, is often worth it.

If you've got more time and more money to spend, the second chart compares prices for two drinks and a half-hour in the VIP room. I assume that your two drinks are bought on the main floor of the club, but if a bar tab is required for the VIP room, the VIP bar tab is used instead of the floor price. Again, my personal favorites are starred.

Lots of Lap Dances

The best deal on nude laps in Las Vegas is found at Talk of the Town, where all dances are $10 each. Little Darlings has nude laps for $20. You'll have to pay $30-$35 for a nude lap dance at the other nude clubs that offer them. But some clubs have 2-for-1 specials on lap dances on various nights. See my full reviews for details. As for lap dances at the topless joints, they're pretty much $20 across the board,

Topless Vegas Pocket Guide

though again, some clubs have 2-for-1 specials on certain nights (see the reviews). One major exception: At Cheetahs, all lap dances on the main floor are only $10 until 7 p.m.

Lots of VIP Room Time

Far and away, your best bet for time in the VIP room is Play It Again Sam, where a half-hour is $100 and includes a bottle of champagne. Your next best bet is Babes, where a half-hour is $150 and the dancer is nude. At Talk of the Town, you can get a half-hour nude for $200, with no bar-tab requirement (since there's no bar). At all other clubs, nude or topless, expect to pay $200-$300 for a half-hour and at most clubs, a bar tab will be required in addition to this dancer fee.

Lots of VIP Room Time When Price Is No Object

Many VIP rooms in the topless clubs are crowded affairs where a dozen or more customers are crammed into a relatively small space with little privacy. If this appeals to you—for example, you like to watch other dancers entertaining other customers while you're being entertained—your best bets are the most popular joints, like Cheetahs and Spearmint Rhino.

Clubs that offer more VIP-room privacy in less-cramped quarters are Badda Bing, Déjà Vu Showgirls, Rick's Cabaret, Sapphire, and Treasures. Other topless clubs where the selection of dancers is usually good on the weekends and where you may not be so crowded are Déjà Vu EUL, and OG.

Of the nude clubs, your best selection of dancers is at Little Darlings. Palomino Club has a good selection and this is the only nude club where you can drink booze. The most private nude VIP rooms are at Palomino and Talk of the Town.

The Strip Club Ratings

At the bottom of the data boxes that lead off each of the club reviews, you'll see three ratings: "Grade of Club," "Grade of Dancer," and "SPW." Together, they provide a good quick glimpse into the quality of each club.

Grading the Clubs

The topless clubs are primarily about lap dances and VIP rooms, so the quality of entertainment

is highly dependent on the individual dancer. Five guys in the same club may have entirely different VIP-room experiences, even if they all pay the same price. And different guys are often looking for entirely different private shows.

So in my reviews, I primarily rate the strip clubs by their stage shows. I tell you the prices of the lap dances and VIP rooms and the bar tabs when applicable and I describe how comfortable and/or how private these rooms are. But I don't attempt to rate how sexy the VIP-room dances are. I also don't identify specific dancers in my reviews, as this would be a waste of ink. There are dozens of Tiffanys and Ashleys and Daisys and Bambis working in the Las Vegas strip clubs, and many of them move around from club to club regularly.

My review descriptions apply to the clubs at peak times—weekends, prime hours, specialty nights, etc. No matter what club you visit, you shouldn't expect to find a cream-of-the-crop roster filled with Las Vegas' finest—if you show up on a Wednesday. That's not to say that all the clubs are duds on weekdays. In fact, you can count on some of them to be strong most nights. Basic strategy if you're out on a weekday is to stick to the clubs most popular with the locals. At the less popular clubs, your best bet is to visit on Friday or Saturday nights only. The charts that follow compile all the club grades and provide a general guide, but remember that even the best-rated clubs will be much more quiet earlier in the evening than they are from about 10 p.m. on.

Grading the Dancers

My rating system for dancers is based entirely on what they look like with their clothes off. The reason: Most dancers in strip clubs rarely have much opportunity to dance. Again, the stages are so small that dancing is simply not an option. (In my reviews, I mention which clubs have bigger and better stages, where you're more likely to see some dancing talent.)

I also realize that my opinion of physical attractiveness is entirely subjective. Your opinion may differ. Every type of female on the planet is some dude's fantasy. My tastes tend toward the traditional and my dancer ratings for all clubs are based on how much the women look like professional dancers or athletes or models to me—healthy-looking women whom most guys would like to see out of the lingerie they're modeling, or the type of girl who might be found competing in sports where physical grace and beauty are big factors—Olympic diving, collegiate gymnastics, professional figure skating. Even beach volleyball works for me.

Also, my rating system has nothing to do with breast size. Personally, I'm not a tit man and I find obvious boob jobs unattractive. A lot of dancers get breast-enhancement surgery, so I don't downgrade dancers with big tits or boob jobs because of my predilections. My reviews mention which clubs have high silicone factors and which don't, so you can make your own decisions on where to go, but my ratings are based more on the overall package.

Thanks to the Vegas market, with so many casino shows, strip clubs, and round-the-clock cocktail service, this city attracts huge numbers of attractive young women looking for work. So I'm pretty strict in my ratings. You don't have to watch less-than-gorgeous dancers in this town if you choose not to.

The SPW Scale

I rate the stage shows—topless and nude—with the “SPW Scale.” The SPW (or Statistical Probability of Wood) ranges from a theoretical high of 100% (impossible to attain in the real world) down to an unlikely (but unfortunately attainable) rating of 0%.

To be honest, a club's SPW rating is based on my subjective opinion of how sexy the stage shows are, which is to say, how likely I think it is that a show will turn you on. Obviously, the average grade of dancer in a club is a big factor in this. But a club with lots of fine and very fine dancers doesn't neces-

Topless Vegas Pocket Guide

GRADING THE DANCERS
VERY FINE	Absolutely gorgeous body. Playboy/Penthouse material. In all likelihood, she makes more money than you do.
FINE	Above average. No extraneous body fat. Any guy would want to do her.
AVERAGE	Girl-next-door type. Maybe not quite a Victoria's Secret model, but still pretty easy on the eyes when she's not wearing much. Let's face it, even an average girl in her twenties or early thirties looks awfully damn good with her clothes off.
BELOW AVERAGE	My below-average rating goes to dancers who are a bit too chunky, or maybe too skinny, with perhaps mild cellulite or breasts that are losing their youthful firmness. The typical below-average dancer probably looks better with clothes on. You won't see these dancers very often in the top strip clubs. Guys who like heavy women might prefer clubs dominated by below-average dancers, so be sure to read the reviews to what type the dancers are. My most common reason to rate dancers as below average is extra weight.
DESPERATE	My desperate rating is reserved for dancers who are way below average in physical appeal. In clubs that hire desperate dancers, you'll see obvious cellulite (and lots of it), inordinately drooping breasts and big belly folds or sagging skin all over. Desperate dancers are just not professional dancer/athlete/model material in my opinion. They seem to be women who have fallen on hard times and are doing what they can to make a buck.

sarily rate higher than one with mostly average girls. A small dark stage generally makes for a poor stage show. Therefore, most of the topless clubs, including many of the most popular clubs with the finest dancers, have pretty low SPW ratings for their stage shows.

An SPW rating of 80% or more means that, in my opinion, if you don't get turned on in this club most of the time you go there, then face it: You're gay. You're reading the wrong guidebook. Go to ShopLVA.com and you'll find the more appropriate guide, Gay Vegas. An SPW rating below 20% means that, in my opinion, this club is about as arousing as the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade. Technically, any SPW rating above 50% is pretty good. A club with a rating of exactly 50% is probably worth a look if you feel like flipping a coin with your erectile tissue. Personally, I recommend not visiting a club with an SPW rating below 50% unless you're going there specifically for the lap dances or VIP room or because the club has some great deal on drinks or Monday Night Football or something like that.

Finally, strip clubs often change ownership and when they do, they often change their names. I mention the prior name(s) of any strip club that has changed in the past few years, so that visitors to Las Vegas who remember, but can't find, a club they visited will know if it now exists under a different name. However, this doesn't mean that the club is the same as the one you remember, as new owners often change policies, décor, schedules, prices, etc.

Pools

Topless sunbathing is the latest rage. Here's a list of adults-only (21 and older) pools that allow "American-style" topless sunbathing, which means loud DJ-driven music, beach-ball games, a full bar, and cocktail waitresses in bikinis. Generally, women are admitted for free or, at most, $10, while men often have to pay $20-$50, if they can get in at all, for the privilege of viewing naked nipples. For maximum potential topless fun, show up at these pools around 3:30 p.m. The Topless Vegas e-book has full reviews of all these pools, as well as their ANEI's (Adjusted Nipple Entertainment Index), which is how this list is ordered.
